

Absente Absinthe Refined

Absente Absinthe Refined has garnered attention at the Chilled 100 Spirits Awards for its classic presentation of what one would expect from a traditional absinthe experience. Known for its high proof, this spirit is celebrated for its ability to mellow out on the finish, providing a balanced taste profile that can be appreciated both on its own and in a cocktail setting.

High Proof: As anticipated from an absinthe, Absente delivers a robust alcoholic strength. This characteristic is typical of the spirit and adds to its depth and complexity.

Smooth Finish: Despite the initial potency, Absente Absinthe Refined is praised for its smooth finish. This attribute allows the spirit to stand out, especially when used in crafting cocktails, offering a refined and polished endnote to each sip.

Licorice Flavor: True to absinthe tradition, the presence of a strong licorice flavor is prominent. This taste is quintessential to absinthe and is expected by enthusiasts seeking an authentic experience.

Appropriate Burn: The spirit provides an expected burn, enhancing the overall tasting experience and reinforcing its authenticity as a high-proof absinthe.

Overall, Absente Absinthe Refined delivers precisely what is expected from a quality absinthe. Its high proof and licorice notes, combined with a smoother finish, make it a solid choice for both purists and those looking to explore creative cocktail possibilities. Whether enjoyed neat or as part of an inventive mix, it promises to enhance the drinking experience with its bold yet refined profile.
