Dark rum aged with Fresh Fruits & a Spice

Simply put, Pango Rhum is an aged dark rum hand blended with natural mango, pineapple, and a secret spice!

The result is refreshingly smooth rum bursting with flavor.

What makes Pango Rhum taste superior to other flavored rums?

- The French rum used to craft Pango Rhum is distilled from noble canes and aged thoroughly
- The mango and the pineapple used in the recipe are farmed with caution and inspected before blending.
- The secret spice used in the recipe brings a decisive vivacity to the final taste.

Pango Rhum tastes fruity with notable hints of spices and a short, warm finish. The unparalleled vibrancy of Pango Rhum, as well as the distinctive character of its body, clearly indicates the quality of the ingredients and production process used to craft this rum.

The logo for Pango Rhum features the word "pango" in a large, stylized, cursive font with a golden outline and a dark red fill. Below it, the word "RHUM" is written in a smaller, bold, sans-serif font, also in dark red. A registered trademark symbol (®) is located to the right of "RHUM".
